ENTERTAINMENT DETAILS

LEGONG DANCE

- Duration 1 hour
- Legong is the heavenly of divine nymphs. Classical Balinese dance which remains the quintessence of femininity and grace. It consists of the following performance.

PENYEMBRAMA DANCE

Welcome Dance

CENDRAWASIH DANCE

A beautiful peacock in the forest.

MANUK RAWA

The living society of birds.

JOGED DANCE

Social Dance

JOGED BUMBUNG

The famous Balinese social dance starts with a solo dancer performing in Legong style, which rapidly become an open invitation for the audiences to dance.

KECAK

A spine – tingling nocturnal trance choir dance in which a large moving mass of bare chested men stimulate the sound of gamelan orchestra.

TEK - TEKAN

The name Tek – Tekan originates from the sound produced when two bamboo sticks clink together. These bamboo sticks are the main musical instrument for this dance and it is used to drive away the evil spirits and cure sickness. The story is based on the battle of white and black magic.

JEGOG

The instrument for Jegog is made from large bamboos which produces mellow and soft sound. A series of dances reflecting the real day to day liveliness in the Balinese environment.

JANGER OKOKAN

A traditional folk dance introduced to the island in the thirties. Janger Okokan is a spectacular and colorful performance. It involves male and female performers who show the flexibility and talent in moving every part of their bodies. Not so long ago Janger Okokan dance was very popular that every village in Bali had their own Janger group for social events.

RINDIK

A traditional Balinese orchestra played by 2 musicians. The soft tune is produced by 2 bamboo instrument.
